

Immigrants in Brazil also have the right to decent work

So be careful!

If you experience any of the following situations:

- Working 12, 14 or even 16 hours a day, without regular breaks.
- Being indebted to your superiors due to food, housing or work equipment expenses.
- Being prevented to leave the workplace whenever you want by your superiors.
- Being threatened with deportation.
- Having your documents or salary retained by your superiors.

Do not accept it! This could be slave labor!

How to ask for help or report slave labor?

- Ministry of Economy

trabalho.gov.br/rede-de-atendimento

- Labor Public Prosecutor's Office

Download the MPT Pardal app or access bit.ly/denuncia-trabalhoescravo

- Federal Public Defender's Office

dpu.def.br/contatos-dpu

- Dial 100 or download the Direitos Humanos BR app

Be safe
#StayHome