

How will São Paulo municipal schools organize the return to class?

- The school break ended on April 13, and classes began on April 22nd, through distance learning.
- Since the face-to-face classes are still suspended, students will use the Trilhas de Aprendizagens pedagogical workbook, available in print and in digital format, and will also be provided with activities, such as classes and exercises, through the digital platform Google Educacional.

How can I receive the printed version of the material?

- In order to receive the workbook, parents must fulfill an online form, updating their registration info. Then, each student will receive the material at his/her home through the postal services. The online form is available in Portuguese at: bit.ly/atualizaRMESP.

How can I access the digital content?

- The digital content will be available both in the student's account on the Google Educational platform and on the website edu.sme.prefeitura.sp.gov.br.
